

2/18/1976

~~Belongs to R Niveese~~

Belongs to
R Niveese

Who are you?

~~Who are you?~~

How would you design a place to live around here nowadays?

What would the kitchen be like?

How about the doors?

How about sleeping?

What about bathing?

And studying?

What sort of a library would you keep?

And work shop?

What about windows?

What about walls?

And the yard?

& fences?

& doors?

What about the roof?

What machines and appliances would you have?

What utilities would you have?

How would areas be arranged relative to other areas?

How would you teach children? How would you teach children about specific subjects (history, English, math, sex, etc.)?

How would you run a school?

How would you relate school and home?

How would you relate school and work?

What laws should there be about schools?

What laws should there not be about schools?

What would you do about the laws that now exist?

What planning ahead about school do you do?

How would you learn things when you are older?

How do you learn things now?

What kind of a family would you have? or do you have?

How did/would you marry?

How did/do/would you stay single?

How do/ would you fuck?

What laws should there be about family and fucking?

What laws should there not be about family and fucking?

What do you do about the laws that now exist?

How did/would you have children?

How do you travel?

What do you take with you?

What regular journeys do you make?

What do you do about food?

What food do you eat?

How do you prepare it?

How do you obtain it?

How is your table set?

What customs about diet do you follow or would you like to have?

What common customs do you not follow?

What do/would you teach your children about food?

How do/would you teach your children about food?

How more, over

How do/would you garden, farm, or gather?
What feasts and fasts on special days do you take?
What drugs and stimulants do you take?
What are your ethics about drugs?
How do/would you teach children about drugs?

What do/would you do when you visit people?
What do you do for visitors?
What customs would you like to follow and have followed?
What common customs do you break?

How do you communicate with others?
How do you write letters?
Who do you write to?
How do you greet your friends?
How do you communicate with yourself?
What ritual words do you use?
What are your ethics about communicating?
What do you do with old letters and notebooks?
What customs do you follow about communicating?
What common customs do you break?

What songs do you sing?
where and when do you sing?

What are your economic ethics?
What customs of obligation do you obey?
What customs do you not obey?
What economic laws should there be?
What economic laws should there not be?

How do/would you find access to tools?
What libraries do/would you use?
How do you keep your tools?

What kinds of clothes do you use?
What customs do you follow about clothes?
What common customs about clothes do you not follow?
What laws should there be about clothes?
What laws should there not be about clothes?
What do you do about existing laws?

What government(s) do you support?
How do you support them?
Do you vote (ever or often)?
Did or would you serve in the military?
Would you kill people for your government?
What laws do you support and obey?
What laws do you not support and obey?
What laws do you work to change and how do you do it?

Do you have ethics about thinking?
What are your ethics about thinking?

What do/would you do when you are sick?
What will you do when you are very old?
What medical ethics do you have?
What preventive regimens do you follow?
What are your problems and what do you do about them?

What religion do you have and belong to?

How did you choose your religion?

What festivals do you celebrate?

What festivals and special occasions are your favorites?

What games and sports do you play?

How do you arrange them?

Where do you play?
